SUGGESTIONS

- For a wider view of ancient Egypt, make a side trip to Luxor or Cairo.
- For a more affordable tour, consider a package that includes flights and hotel accommodations.
- For a more luxurious experience, upgrade to a suite or penthouse accommodation.
- For a more immersive experience, consider a tour that includes guided visits to additional sites.
- For a more intimate experience, consider a smaller ship with fewer passengers.
- For a more adventurous experience, consider a tour that includes activities such as rafting or snorkeling.

Policy

- In the万一 of any change of schedule, your safety and the well-being of our guests will always be our top priority. We will do our best to keep you informed of any changes as they happen. Any major change will allow us to develop an alternative plan that will assure the best experience for you.

Day One

- Welcome Reception at the hotel.

Day Two

- Breakfast. Excursion: Cairo | Giza | Sakkara
- Visit the Egyptian Museum, Cairo and the new Papyrus Institute. In Sakkara, one of the ancient places of the Middle Kingdom, visit the ancient tombs, pyramids and mummies.

Day Three

- Breakfast. This morning, continue your excursion to the valley of the Kings. The tomb of Queen Nefertari, a beautiful Nubian queen whose husband was the great pharaoh Ramses II, is yours to discover as we reintroduce a spectacular adventure.

Day Four

- Breakfast. Excursion: Luxor Temple
- Visit the Temple of Karnak.

Day Five

- Breakfast. Excursion: Kom Ombo
- Explore the double Temple of Sobek and Haroeris. Kom Ombo's temple is dedicated to the crocodile-headed Sobek, the crocodile god of the Nile, and to Haroeris, the god of the Nile. The temple is unique in that it is dedicated to two gods, each represented by a separate temple. The temple of Sobek is dedicated to the crocodile god of the Nile, while the Temple of Haroeris is dedicated to the hawk-headed god of the sun. The temple is unique in that it is dedicated to two gods, each represented by a separate temple. Day Six

- Breakfast. Check out of the hotel. Transfer to the airport for the return flights.
Your exclusive Egyptian journey begins in Cairo, where you’ll spend two nights exploring the Great Pyramids of Giza, a guardian of secrets. Throughout this program, you will marvel at its expansive display of more than 100,000 fascinating items, including treasures from the most richest collection of ancient Egyptian artifacts. With its Necropolis, the city of Cairo has been a religious and administrative center for more than 3,000 years. Crouching nearby is the last of the Ancient World. The largest of the six surviving monument among the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World is the Great Pyramid of Giza, the only remaining of the original Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. The pyramid was built around 237 B.C. and finally finished 200 years later. Recognized by archeologists for their great romance in history and engineering marvels, these ancient structures still stand today, commanding respect and admiration from each generation that visits them.

Day Two

Enjoy breakfast each morning of your journey. In the morning, you will embark on an exclusive visit to the Chicago House in Luxor, whose history and growing influence on the study of ancient Egypt is drawn on. After all the details have been sketched, the Epigraphic Survey, University of Chicago’s Oriental Institute, will photograph the image on a coated paper that can be conserved. The method consists of photographing a surface and printing the image on a coated paper that can be conserved.

Day Three

During your stay in Luxor, an exclusive visit to the Temple of Luxor, is a must! The temple is dedicated to Amun-her-Khepshef, the son of Amenhotep III. Visit the tomb of Amun-her-Khepshef, the son of Amenhotep III. Visit the tomb of Amun-her-Khepshef, the son of Amenhotep III. After all the details have been sketched, the Epigraphic Survey, University of Chicago’s Oriental Institute, will photograph the image on a coated paper that can be conserved. The method consists of photographing a surface and printing the image on a coated paper that can be conserved.

Day Four

Marvel at the Temple of Karnak. Begin your tour of this vast temple complex, which was built over a span of 1,500 years and dedicated to Amun and his wife Mut. The temple’s construction began 3,700 years ago in the 18th dynasty. It is the largest Temple complex ever built and is dedicated to the god Amun. The temple was constructed on a raised platform, with statues and bas-reliefs depicting the history of Egypt. The temple is also home to the Luxor Temple, which is dedicated to the god Amun and his wife Mut. The temple is 780 feet long and was built around 1500 B.C.

Day Five

Aswan High Dam. Fly back to Aswan by air. Enjoy a leisurely breakfast on board and begin your journey south to Aswan, where you will board your Nile cruise. The Aswan High Dam is a 3,600 foot long dam that was built around 1965 to control the flow of the Nile River. The dam is a marvel of engineering and is currently the largest dam in the world.

Day Six

Cruise ships docked at Kom Ombo | Cruising to Philae. Explore the Temples of Kom Ombo and Philae. The Temple of Kom Ombo is dedicated to the gods Horus and Sobek, while the Temple of Philae is dedicated to the goddess Isis. Enjoy a leisurely sail down the Nile River, passing through the bluffs and canyons that line the banks of the river. In the evenings, you will have the opportunity to explore the ancient cities of Luxor and Aswan.

Day Seven

Fly back to Luxor by air. Relax during lunch at a local restaurant. Then, visit the Temple of Luxor, which was dedicated to the god Amun and his wife Mut. The temple is one of the largest in the world and is dedicated to the gods Amun, Mut, and Khonsu. You will also visit the Valley of the Kings and the Valley of Queens, where the pharaohs and their families were buried.

Day Eight

Explore the Luxor Temple. This temple is dedicated to the god Amun and his wife Mut. It was built around 1420 B.C. and is one of the most important temples in Egypt. You will also visit the Temple of Hatshepsut, which was built around 1460 B.C. and is dedicated to the goddess Hatshepsut. You will also visit the Temple of Karnak, which is dedicated to the god Amun and his wife Mut. It was built around 1470 B.C. and is one of the largest temples in the world.

The ancient allure of Egypt captivates and enchants on this spectacular 15-day Nile program. From Cairo, the capital of Egypt, rich with antiquity to the timeless temples that dot the banks of the Nile, your tour features a blend of journeys that will continue to interest and inspire humanity’s collective imagination for thousands of years.

Join us as we explore the double temples of Sobek and Temple of Horus, and Egyptologist-guided tour will transport you on fascinating excursions that offer an in-depth look at the local culture and history of this ancient land. Your trip creates many fond memories. Plus, an Egyptologist will lead your group through the tombs of nobility and is to peel the shrines of the inside, like an onion, and we will be with the rest of humanity’s collective imagination for thousands of years.
